

The Prairie Light Review

---

Volume 25

Number 2 Once upon a time recently in...a land nearby

Article 93

---

Spring 5-1-2005

Cornerstone of Life

Sara Berg

College of DuPage

Follow this and additional works at: <https://dc.cod.edu/plr>

---

Recommended Citation

Berg, Sara (2005) "Cornerstone of Life," The Prairie Light Review: Vol. 25 : No. 2 , Article 93.

Available at: <https://dc.cod.edu/plr/vol25/iss2/93>

This Selection is brought to you for free and open access by the College Publications at DigitalCommons@COD. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Prairie Light Review by an authorized editor of DigitalCommons@COD. For more information, please contact orenick@cod.edu.

How to Go Back in Time

By Sarah Daneine

Close your eyes and imagine that you could give back your first kiss or unspeak the words snarled in fury so that the regret would go away.
Rip out pages or old journals and burn pictures
whose color was emotion.
Sell back memories of love and hate
to make the hands of time
turn back and see the sun rise in the west.

Cornerstone of Life

by Sara Berg

The smell of dust fills the Water deprived air
As the sun beats down
On sweat soaked bodies
Walking the grounds of this place

Faces stretch for miles upon miles
Each one as unique as the last
This is solitude
This is what life is about

United, here at last
Our hearts and souls brought together
Unified as one

There's a beat to it all
A chorus to our life
A verse for our emotion
The song says it all